

Chip Darling
Interim Chief Executive Officer

Chip Darling is the Interim Chief Executive Officer at Mission First. As Interim CEO, Chip provides leadership to a staff of more than 200 individuals, and reports to the Board of Directors and works collaboratively with Executive and Director-level staff members in each of the respective entities to ensure the organization consistently achieves its mission and financial objectives.

While Interim CEO, Chip also continues the role of Chief Operating Officer and is responsible for managing the real estate operations of Mission First and oversight of the company's real estate portfolio. Chip also coordinates with the senior executive team to implement the strategic vision of the Board.

Chip previously held the position of Director of Development, Philadelphia Region at Mission First. Prior to joining Mission First, Chip was Vice President of Developer Relations at Riverside Capital where he managed the company's largest developer-client. Mr. Darling began working in affordable housing over 20 years ago as a community and economic development consultant.

Chip holds a Bachelor of Arts in Urban Studies from the University of Pennsylvania.

